

Alumni Feedback Report Academic Session 2022-23

Introduction: The Alumni Feedback Report for the academic session 2022-23 at ITM Gwalior presents insights and reflections from alumni on their academic experience, professional growth, and suggestions for future improvements. This feedback is crucial for enhancing the institution's academic offerings and aligning them with current industry demands.

1. Curriculum and Course Content: Alumni largely expressed satisfaction with the curriculum, noting that it was comprehensive and offered a good mix of theoretical and practical knowledge. Many acknowledged that the course content helped them transition smoothly into their professional roles. Some alumni, however, suggested that updating the curriculum to include more content on emerging technologies, such as artificial intelligence, block chain, and data science, would better prepare students for modern industry challenges.

2. Faculty Support and Mentorship: Alumni praised the faculty at ITM Gwalior for their dedication, knowledge, and mentorship. They felt that the faculty's approachable and supportive attitude helped them not only academically but also in building confidence and problem-solving skills. The personalized attention provided by the faculty during projects and internships was also noted as a positive aspect of their experience. Some have suggested for more industry-experienced faculty.

3. Skill Development: Alumni were generally satisfied with the skill development opportunities provided at ITM Gwalior. They highlighted that the institution encouraged the development of both hard and soft skills, such as analytical thinking, teamwork, communication, and leadership. Some alumni suggested that introducing more skill-specific workshops, certifications, and guest lectures by industry professionals could enhance students' preparedness for the job market.

4. Internships and Industry Exposure: Internships and industrial visits were considered instrumental in providing real-world experience. Alumni appreciated the hands-on training and exposure they received, which helped them gain practical insights into the workings of their respective fields. Some alumni recommended expanding the range of industry collaborations to offer more varied and in-depth internship opportunities, particularly in emerging industries like e-commerce, green energy, and health tech. Alumni emphasized the need for more hands-on, industry-relevant training.

5. Placement Support and Career Development: Alumni were appreciative of the placement support offered by ITM Gwalior. Many acknowledged that the institution's training sessions, mock interviews, and career counseling helped them secure job placements. Alumni suggested further strengthening the alumni network to provide current students with mentorship, job referrals, and access to a wider network of industry professionals. Alumni suggested more focus on entrepreneurship and startup ecosystem.

6. Infrastructure and Resources: Alumni were generally satisfied with the campus infrastructure, including the availability of well-equipped labs, libraries, and other learning resources. However, a few suggested for more advanced lab equipment and digital learning resources.

7. Alumni Engagement: Several alumni expressed a desire for stronger post-graduation engagement with ITM Gwalior. They suggested organizing alumni reunions, networking events, and mentorship programs that would allow them to contribute to the growth of the institution and help guide current students through their academic and professional journeys.

Conclusion: The Alumni Feedback Report for the academic session 2022-23 reflects a positive sentiment towards ITM Gwalior's educational offerings and the support provided throughout their academic journey. Alumni feedback highlights the institution's strength in faculty support, skill development, and industry exposure, while also offering valuable suggestions for modernizing the curriculum and enhancing career development opportunities. These insights will help ITM Gwalior continue to refine its programs to better serve the evolving needs of students and the professional landscape.

This report encapsulates the alumni's reflections on their academic and professional growth, offering a roadmap for continuous improvement at ITM Gwalior.
