

Parents Feedback Report Academic Session 2019-20

Introduction: The Parents Feedback Report for the academic session 2019-20 provides an overview of the opinions and perspectives of parents regarding their child's educational experience at ITM Gwalior. This report highlights key areas of satisfaction and areas where improvements have been suggested, reflecting the institution's commitment to continuous improvement.

1. Quality of Education: Parents expressed overall satisfaction with the quality of education provided at ITM Gwalior. They appreciated the curriculum's balance between theoretical knowledge and practical applications. The institution's commitment to ensuring a well-rounded academic experience was highly regarded, particularly in terms of course content and academic rigor. Some parents suggested a review of the curriculum to include more industry-relevant subjects and practical exposure.

2. Faculty Competency: Parents rated the teaching faculty positively. They acknowledged the faculty's depth of knowledge and their ability to explain complex concepts effectively. Many parents also commended the faculty for being approachable and supportive towards students' academic needs.

3. Infrastructure & Facilities: Parents were generally satisfied with the campus infrastructure, including classrooms, laboratories, and library facilities. A few parents suggested that improvements in quality and variety of food in the hostel mess and recreational facilities could further enhance the student experience. However, they acknowledged that the institution provided a conducive learning environment.

4. Extracurricular Activities: Parents appreciated the opportunities for their children to engage in extracurricular activities. They recognized the importance of these activities in fostering leadership, teamwork, and social skills. Events, sports activities, and cultural programs were considered valuable aspects of student development. Some Parents expressed a need for more extracurricular activities to ensure overall personality development of students.

5. Industry Exposure & Career Guidance: Several parents appreciated the focus on providing industry exposure through internships, industrial visits, and guest lectures. Career guidance and placement efforts were rated positively, with parents acknowledging the institution's dedication to preparing students for the job market. Parents asked for enhanced support for placements, especially for students in non-technical fields.

6. Student Discipline and Ethics: Parents valued the emphasis placed on student discipline and ethics at ITM Gwalior. They believed that the institution not only focused on academics but also instilled important values, helping shape their children into responsible and disciplined individuals.

7. Communication and Feedback Mechanisms: Parents praised the open communication between the institution and families. Regular updates on student performance, events, and activities helped parents stay informed and engaged. Feedback mechanisms were considered effective, with parents appreciating the administration's responsiveness to their concerns. Some parents suggested improving the transport services for students commuting from nearby cities and towns also.

Conclusion: The Parents Feedback Report for the academic session 2019-20 reflects a positive perception of ITM Gwalior's academic and extracurricular efforts. Parents are largely satisfied with the quality of education, faculty competency, and the holistic development opportunities provided to their children. The suggestions highlighted in this report will help the institution focus on further improving the student experience in future academic sessions.

This report encapsulates the feedback provided by parents and offers insights into how ITM Gwalior can continue to excel in providing a comprehensive educational environment.
